

VIRTUAL JULY GLOBAL SOUTHERN FORUM

JULY 17–21, 2023

TITLE: BEGINNING THE CONVERSATION

The 2023 July Global Southern Forum is a virtual event titled Beginning the Conversation and serves as a precursor to the in-person July Global Southern Forum to be held in July 2024 at Nelson Mandela University, Gqeberha, South Africa.

The virtual installment seeks to prompt some initial thoughts to be developed into fully fledged conversations, panel discussions and workshops to be taken up in 2024. The July Global Southern Forum is imagined as a 'roaming' Forum, and will travel across different geographical and geopolitical spaces every year with the aim of exploring intellectual priorities and scholarship across contexts.

Prospective Sessions include

KEYNOTE:

THE MANDELA NAME AND THE IDEAS OF EARLY AFRICAN INTELLECTUALS
IN THE EASTERN CAPE

CONVERSATIONS

Pamela Maseko and Nomalanga Mkhize
John Joseph and Ana Deumert
Salikoko Mufwene and Jane Gordon
Rozena Maart and Michael West
Uchenna Ukeja

PANEL DISCUSSIONS

Babalwa Magoqwana and panelists
Sinfree Makoni, Lewis Gordon, and Alastair Pennycook
Cecile Vigouroux and panelists

More Information

REGISTRATION LINK

PSUAFR@GMAIL.COM

GVF.LA.PSU.EDU